

Rebecca's Garden of Hope 10 Daily Expectations for Tutoring Program

All rules for Rebecca's Garden of Hope Tutoring Program will fall under one of the 10 daily expectations. These expectations will be read before each tutoring session.

- 1. I will demonstrate a Christ-like respectful attitude toward myself, the tutors, other students, my family, friends, and others I interact with daily in and outside of the program.*
- 2. I will keep my hands, feet and all objects to myself, on the van and before during and after each tutoring session.*
- 3. I will use appropriate language during each tutoring session, at home and in other places where I interact with others.*
- 4. I will stay in my assigned seat and area at all times, and only get up after I have asked and received permission.*
- 5. I will listen, follow directions, use my inside voice, and commit each day, to staying on task.*
- 6. I will respond quickly to requests made by tutors and other authority figures.*
- 7. I will ask if I can be excused to go to the restroom or get up for a drink of water.*
- 8. I will raise my hand and only respond when called on, if I have a question, suggestion or positive idea.*
- 9. I will not leave the building or run and play outside without an adult monitoring my activity, at all times.*
- 10. I will wait in line quietly to board the van or leave the program and I will follow the van rules or other rules when arriving and leaving program.*
